

Leading with Excellence:

Tools for Effective Boards

Do you serve on a board of directors and feel like you and your board could be more effective? Are you thinking of joining a board, but you're not sure what's involved? This workshop series will give current & prospective board members and key staff of board-governed organizations the knowledge and practical tools you need for leadership excellence.

Join us to become a better board member ... AND serve on a better board!

Registration Information:

$50/person for the 5-session series OR
$15/person each session

To register, contact:

Call: 307-527-8560 or 307-754-8560

E-mail: crenner@parkcounty.us

Deadline to Register:

March 1, 2012

limited to 25 participants*

Registration acknowledged upon receipt of payment

Questions? Please contact:

Tara Kuipers, UW Extension

tkuipers@parkcounty.us

307-527-8560 OR 307-754-8560

Scholarships are available; contact us for details

Time: 6—8:30 pm

Location: EOC Room, Park County Courthouse (Lower Level) in Cody

Dates:

March 6, 2012

Session Topic:

Board Responsibilities & Good Governance

Why do you even HAVE a board of directors? And what does “governance” mean anyway? Find out the important roles and responsibilities of a board of directors and individual board members.

April 3, 2012

Tools for Effective Meetings & Board Decision-Making

Good meetings don't just happen—they take careful planning and thoughtful participation by both leaders and attendees. Learn how your board meetings and board decisions can become more efficient.

May 1, 2012

Financial Management & Fundraising

The board plays a key role in managing and decision-making for organizational finances. Understand the key financial questions board members should ask, and learn about common financial statements your board should use to make sound fiscal decisions.

June 5, 2012

The Board-Building Cycle

Few organizations are overrun with available, willing, and qualified board members—they certainly don't grow on trees! Discover how to find, recruit, engage, and keep board members that will increase the success of your organization.

July 10, 2012

Strategic Board Communication

The old saying “all press is good press...” is no longer true! Discover how you and your board can communicate internally within your organization, externally to share your message with the public, and work effectively with the media.